

Carrot Chantenay F1 Hybrid

Description: Chantenay F1 hybrid with a very strong foliage and a good bolting tolerance. The carrots are very bulky and productive. The average length is approximately 16-18 cm depending on the density and soil type. At the top the average diameter is 4-5 cm., and at the tip the 2-3 cm. Internally the color is dark orange, with a differences in color of the core and the flesh. The maturity in comparison with the O.P. Chantenay is a few day later what will not influence the potential in fresh market. Relatively high brix of 11 and a high level of Beta Carotene, on average.

Maturity: Approximately 130 days

Disease Tolerance: High tolerance to Alternaria Dauci

Comments: Chantenay F₁ Hybrid has very good color. This Chantenay Hybrid variety provides very high production. This variety is very good for fresh markets, and for the processing industry.

