

Celery Golden Self Blanching

Description: This variety is yellowish green in color. The plant can reach a height of 20 inches. The stalks have good color, very good thickness and smoothness, and excellent fibrous, reaching a length of 6 inches before the first node.

Maturity: Approximately 50-60 days from transplant

Comments: Golden Self Blanching is a high quality, yellow variety. It is a good self blanching type, that is suitable for greenhouse production.

